Complimentary and free with this pew sheet is a simplified order for Holy Communion that we will be using on Wednesdays during this "Corona time".
You'll notice that the 'priest bits' have been removed and you are left with a very easy to follow service with just the peoples parts. This is the weekday version.
Fr. David is wondering about the possibility of using this format for our regular 'Sunday booklet'. Initially the feedback has been positive, but he looks forward to hearing from as many as possible. Hoorah!

31st May 2020

Sentence: John 7.38

'Let anyone who is thirsty come to me,' says the Lord; 'and let the one who believes in me drink. For out of your heart shall flow rivers of living water.' John 7.38

Collect:

Almighty God, at the feast of Pentecost you sent your Holy Spirit to the disciples, filling them with joy and boldness to preach the gospel: empower us with that same Spirit to witness to your redeeming love and draw all people to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

<sup>1</sup> When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. <sup>2</sup> And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. <sup>4</sup> All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. <sup>5</sup> Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. <sup>7</sup> Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?' <sup>8</sup> And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? <sup>9</sup> Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, <sup>10</sup> Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, <sup>11</sup> Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' <sup>12</sup> All were another, 'What does this mean?' <sup>13</sup> But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.' <sup>14</sup> But Peter, addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. <sup>15</sup> Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. <sup>16</sup> No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: <sup>17</sup> "In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh—and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. <sup>18</sup> Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. <sup>19</sup> And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. <sup>20</sup> The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. <sup>21</sup> Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Thanks be to God

Psalm 104.26-37

26. Lord, how various are your works: in wisdom you have made them all, and the There is the wide, immeasurable sea: there move living things without number, great and small;
27. There go the ships, to and fro: and there is that Leviathan whom you formed to sport in the deep.
28. These all look to you: to give them their food in due season.
29. When you give it to them, they gather it: when you open your hand they are satisfied with good things.
30. When you hide your face, they are troubled: when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
31. When you send forth your spirit they are created: and you renew the face of the earth.
32. May the glory of the Lord endure forever: may the Lord rejoice in his works.
33. If he look upon the earth, it shall tremble: if he but touch the mountains, they shall smoke.

love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. So whenever you see a movement, a person, an action, or you hear a word bringing these things to life, then you can be very sure that the Holy Spirit is at work. Love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. On our mission, the same mission that Jesus went on, these things are our tools of trade and they are also the fruit that we are called to nurture, to blossom and flourish, in the lives that we are privileged to touch. And on this day of resurrection, just as He did on that very first day of resurrection, The Master breathes on us. He sends us out as He himself was sent out. With all its joy, with all its scrapes, with all its disappointments, with all its delight, with all its adventure and with all its love,... this is His work, this is the Spirits work, this is our work yours and mine.

Hooly Dooly... Its todays homily.

It's the evening of the first Easter Sunday and the Master appears to the apostles. He gives them an appetiser of Pentecost, then sends them out to carry on the unending mission. Now a couple of weeks ago, I pointed out that the intimacy and relationship that Jesus has with his Father, is the same intimacy and relationship that we are called to have with Jesus and with each other. Today, the same principle applies, only we take the plan one step further. Listen carefully

21 Jesus said, "As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you." 22

So ... just as the Father sent Jesus on a mission to bring healing, wholeness and reconciliation to the world, so to Jesus sends us on that very same mission of healing, wholeness and reconciliation.

Uh huh

Just as the Father sent Jesus on a mission to bring healing, wholeness and reconciliation, so to Jesus sends us on that very same mission of healing, wholeness and reconciliation.

Now this is a marvellous adventure that we are called to embark on. It is thrilling and exciting, but it is also perilous and we need a lot of help. The help is given to us by the same Holy Spirit ... the breath of God. Where do we tap into this spirit?

There are all the traditional places - the sacraments.

a) Through Baptism The Holy Spirit washes away sin and makes us children of God and heirs of Heaven.

b) Through Confirmation, He makes us temples of God, warriors and defenders of the Faith.

And to this day the service of confirmation goes. Strengthen Lord your servant Mildred with your Holy Spirit...

Through the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist, the Holy Spirit gives us spiritual nourishment by converting bread and wine into Jesus' Body and Blood. In fact there is a part in the Eucharist, just after the Holy Holy Holy, part where the priest asks for the gift of the Holy Spirit to come down and change the bread and wine into the body and blood of Jesus. The flash church word for this part of the service is epiclesis and this morning the words are "Lord you are holy indeed, the fountain of all holiness. Let your Spirit come upon these gifts to make them holy, so that they may become for us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ"

At the ordination of a priest there is a part in the service where the bishop says to the candidate.

"Receive the office and work of a priest" and then continues with the very same words that Our Lord said to the apostles.

"Who so ever sins you forgive they are forgiven and who so ever sins you retain they are retained."

Now these are just some of the places that we know with absolute certainty that the Holy Spirit is accessible and in top gear.

But we are also aware that much of the Holy Sprits work happens out side of these traditional channels of grace.

The church has never and should never, claim to have a complete monopoly of the Holy Spirit.

In John's gospel Jesus is having a fireside chat with Nicodemus and explains

"The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

Some of the more high profile movements where I think Holy Sprit has been at work outside the sacraments and active within our society are with things like

Our heightened sense of vocation to care for God's creation. Calling out the absolute wrongness of domestic violence and the Me too movement.

But how do we know? How can we be sure this is the work of the Holy Spirit? It is by their fruits that we know if God's Spirit is work.

And the fruits of the Spirit are

34. I will sing to the Lord as long as I live: I will praise my God while I have any being.

35. May my meditation be pleasing to him: for my joy shall be in the Lord.

36. May sinners perish from the earth, let the wicked be no more: bless the Lord, O my soul; O praise the Lord.

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 12.1-13

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. <sup>2</sup> You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. <sup>3</sup> Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says 'Let Jesus be cursed!' and no one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit. <sup>4</sup> Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; <sup>5</sup> and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; <sup>6</sup> and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. <sup>7</sup> To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. <sup>8</sup> To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, <sup>9</sup> to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, <sup>10</sup> to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup> All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. <sup>12</sup> For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. <sup>13</sup> For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body — Jews or Greeks, slaves or free — and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia! alleluia.

He breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'

R. Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel: John 20.19-23

The Lord be with you.

And also with you

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
According to St John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

<sup>19</sup> When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. <sup>21</sup> Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' <sup>22</sup> When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup> If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.'

For the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

St Peter's Church News

Last week church members met with Gareth Colliton (the painter of the mural) at the church to inspect the defaced mural. Glen Hughes had thoughtfully and carefully made a great inroad in cleaning off much of the black paint and we are grateful to him for his time, energy and patience in helping us. Gareth is coming on Saturday June 20th at 10.00am to start on the painstaking exercise of restoring the faces and will be available to everyone who would like to be depicted in the mural. Some people have expressed a wish for other symbols of their faith---this may be a flower, animal, bird or any other emblem. To illustrate this idea please see the depiction of Ken Hurley on his much loved header or Dr Irving (Glenthompson original doctor who lived opposite the church and was the choir master of St Peter's) in his steel rimmed car. Both these figures were requested by family and friends and have been carefully painted to include them in our worshipping congregation. We would love to have everyone of any denomination included in our mural which celebrates our community past and present. This mural was always intended to be a gift to Glenthompson, not as a record only, but an ongoing picture of our much loved little town. Please consider this as we are trying to illustrate the sense of cohesion Glenthompson possesses and for which the town is famous. Contact Earlene Gellert on 53541561 or mobile 0448832202, Elisabeth Cuming on 55774223 if you would like more information or an appointment time with Gareth. Of course all this is very expensive particularly as the mural has to be restored. So here is the next part of the story!! We are not certain of how much money we will need to repair the damage. Gareth is unable to be exact but we are trying to "raise the wind" in anticipation of a bill in excess of $6000.0. It does sound terrible but we cannot imagine that it will be much less. So to start we are intending to run a

Intercessions for the Eucharist and for you to say at home

Just as the Father sent Jesus on a mission to bring healing, wholeness and reconciliation to the world, so to Jesus send us on that very same mission of healing, wholeness and reconciliation.

The response to the bidding
"Jesus Christ is the light of the world " ... is ... " let us share his light".

Lord, the all revealing light of your Love is shining at this time of Pentecost as we are challenged to make a difference in the name of Jesus.

Help us to be considerate in our actions, thoughtful in our dealings with people and reflect in our lives your loving concern for all. Help us to be open to see your will, and trust you in the choices we make each day.

"Jesus Christ is the light of the world " " let us share his light".

We remember and thank you for the joy of sharing with others your good news. Help us to share our faith with those in whatever way we can, especially as our churches are now opening in a limited way.

We pray for Garry our Bishop, Fr David and all the priests in the diocese as they face the difficulties of ministering to their people at this time of change.

"Jesus Christ is the light of the world " " let us share his light".

Lord, let the world be changed, for we long to see an end of the corona virus threat;

Lord, keep the health workers free of the virus and able to continue their valuable work

Lord, let our lives be changed in positive ways by the challenges we are facing.

"Jesus Christ is the light of the world " " let us share his light".

We give you thanks that you are there in every situation, and aspect of our lives, with us through every moment of every day, even when we are confined to our homes.

Help us to be mindful of the differing needs of those in our community. Help us to be there when needed, sharing the high and happy parts of life and supportive during the lowest and most miserable times we all experience.

"Jesus Christ is the light of the world " " let us share his light".

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind or spirit. Give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

We remember all in special need and bring before you those ill at home or in hospital and those who care for them.

We bring before you those who feel no one cares for or about them, the unemployed, the poor, the lonely, those living alone, the depressed and those suffering anxiety.

"Jesus Christ is the light of the world " " let us share his light".

We remember those who are close to death and those recently bereaved, especially ..... We pray for those who mourn the loss of loved ones and cannot have the comfort of easily sharing their loss with others.

"Jesus Christ is the light of the world " " let us share his light".

Lord of the past, the present and the future, breathe on us breath of God and fill us with new life.

We pray that our lives will tell your story. Shine in our darkness
