Sentence: Isaiah 9.2, 6

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; for to us a child is born, to us a son is given.

Collect:

Give us, O God, such love and wonder that, with shepherds and pilgrims unknown, we may come to adore the holy Child, the promised King, and with our gifts worship him, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Jeanine and Fr. David would like to wish every one of you a very Joyous Christmass and a fantastic 2021. Thank you very much for all your support and encouragement through this very wobbly time!

1st Reading: Isaiah 9.2-7

<sup>2</sup> The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. <sup>3</sup> You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. <sup>4</sup> For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. <sup>5</sup> For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. <sup>6</sup> For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. <sup>7</sup> His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onwards and for evermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Psalms 96

1. O sing to the Lord a new song: sing to the Lord, all the earth.
2. Sing to the Lord and bless his holy name: proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.
3. Declare his glory among the nations: and his wonders among all peoples.
4. For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised: he is more to be feared than all gods.
5. As for all the gods of the nations, they are mere idols: it is the Lord who made the heavens.
6. Majesty and glory are before him: beauty and power are in his sanctuary.
7. Render to the Lord, you families of the nations: render to the Lord glory and might.
8. Render to the Lord the honour due to his name: bring offerings and come into his courts.

embarrassment that I had not thought of. The crisp eloquence of the words is something quite special. I found the words helpful and my prayer is that you will too.

Bare feet kissed the stony walkways of Bethlehem
In the early morning dark Young boys,
junior to my fourteen years
stood about in the mist.
Stood about and stared making me uncomfortable unable to bare my breast and feed.

Country boys
speaking quickly
with a pronounced accent,
taking no notice of the cold
laughing at private jokes
just standing around devoid of their sheep.
The sky opened for them
or so they said
peering into the highest heaven
announcing this birth.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Stephen December 26th
St. Stephen, died in the year 36 at Jerusalem; He was a Christian deacon in Jerusalem and the first Christian martyr, whose argument before the Sanhedrin (Acts of the Apostles 7) points to a distinct strand of belief in early Christianity. His defense of his faith before the rabbinic court enraged his Jewish audience, and he was taken out of the city and stoned to death. His final words were a prayer of forgiveness for his attackers (Acts of the Apostles 7:60), echo those of Jesus on the cross (Luke 23:34). Stephen is the patron saint of deacons and stonemasons. His feast day is observed with both religious and secular traditions in a number of countries

Today's Homily

Rudolph the red nosed reindeer re-told the Christmass homily called "It was an embarrassment".

It was an embarrassment! An experience that was excessively cringeworthy. The family Christmass lunch is one those events where only the brave and foolish prosper. Let me tell you about one such fictional attempt at peace on earth and good will to all people.

Fleur and Jack are your welcoming hosts and while there had been some passionate disagreement about Jack's code of dress (Hawaiian shirt, shorts and thongs) they are at the door to greet and meet the troops as they arrive. By the way, Fleur had won and was proudly wearing a twin set and pearls. Jack got away with a dubious but clean T-shirt. The first to arrive are Darby and Colt. Darby is 17 and has discovered her feminine hormones. Colt is 22 with alluring body art and a face full of fishing tackle piercings. He speaks with an accent that no one can quite identify. They are obviously very happy to be together and sit very closely. Next to arrive is Martha and June, her partner. Fleur has never really approved of this arrangement while Jack is already pouring them large glasses of Chardonnay as they settle themselves down next to the loud TV.

Unannounced they have brought Jimmy their son along and he is gazing down the bottomless black hole of his shiny new iPad. Ryker and his Dad Kingston arrive. They live at the dodgy end of the street but have bought a chook from Coles and half a dozen VB cans. They have no-one else for Christmass and Jack thought it would be a cracking idea if they came along. The first Fleur knows about this is when the doorbell goes. Imagine Hyacinth Bucket and an unexpected Onslow. Ryker and Kingston are the last to arrive.

Extra chairs are squished in around the table and a smoky aroma begins to waft from the kitchen. Fleur exclaims a very unlady like word and hurtles away to sort out the mess. The Christmass presents are predictable except those between Darby and Colt. They are curious in shape and design. The conversation starts innocently enough. Chooks, footy, cars, real estate and the weather; but then slips mercilessly towards politics, COVID and religion. The booze flows, Faces are flushed, voices begin to be raised. Somehow a chicken drumstick magically sails through the air striking Jimmy's beloved iPad. The christmass tree topples over onto Colt and Darby who are mercifully oblivious to everything else that is happening. The doorbell goes and the Vicar arrives for a nice pastoral visit and a cup of tea. The police pull up outside as there has been a complaint from one of the neighbours. It was an embarrassment.

So why am I telling you this story and where does God fit into all this mayhem? The good news is that God fits right into our every embarrassment. It is an embarrassment that the Mother of God was a peasant teenage lass from a backwater town. It was an embarrassment that she and her hubby hadn't been married for nine months before her waters broke. It was an embarrassment that their pleas for a room were declined. It was embarrassing that the maternity ward was nothing more than a dark dank cave. It was an embarrassment that the wise men had to stop and ask directions from a devious and manipulative monarch. It was an embarrassment that Our Lord died a lonely criminal's death with only a few by his side.

It is embarrassing that the King of Kings and Lord of lords offers himself in meagre busted bread and a sip of wine.

There is no circumstance, no dysfunctional family, no embarrassment so catastrophic, that God is alienated. He can never be apart from Fleur, Jack and the crew or even the well meaning Vicar who should have known better and been at home with his own family. I am going to conclude with some words that I did not write. A parishioner wrote them and I sought their permission to use their words. If you listen closely you will discern another

9. O worship the Lord in the beauty of his holiness: let the whole earth stand in awe of him.
10. Say among the nations that the Lord is king: he has made the world so firm that it can never be moved; and he shall judge the peoples with equity.
11. Let the heavens rejoice and let the earth be glad: let the sea roar, and all that fills it:
12. Let the fields rejoice, and everything in them: then shall all the trees of the wood shout with joy before the Lord;
13. For he comes, he comes to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with his truth.

2nd Reading: Titus 2.11-14

<sup>11</sup> For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, <sup>12</sup> training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, <sup>13</sup> while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ. <sup>14</sup> He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia, alleluia.

I am bringing you good news of great joy to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is the Messiah, the Lord.
R. Alleluia.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 2.1-14

The Lord be with you.
And also with you

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
According to St Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

<sup>1</sup> In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. <sup>2</sup> This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. <sup>3</sup> All went to their own towns to be registered. <sup>4</sup> Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. <sup>5</sup> He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. <sup>6</sup> While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. <sup>7</sup> And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. <sup>8</sup> In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. <sup>9</sup> Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. <sup>10</sup> But the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: <sup>11</sup> to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is the Messiah, the Lord. <sup>12</sup> This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.' <sup>13</sup> And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, <sup>14</sup> 'Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favours!'

For the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
