1st Reading: Jeremiah 33.14-16

<sup>14</sup> The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will fulfil the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. <sup>15</sup> In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. <sup>16</sup> In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Psalms 25.1-10

1. In you, O Lord my God, have I put my hope: in you have I trusted, let me not be ashamed, nor let my enemies triumph over me.
2. Let none who wait for you be put to shame: but let those that break faith be confounded and gain nothing.
3. Show me your ways, O Lord: and teach me your paths.
4. Lead me in the ways of your truth, and teach me: for you are the God of my salvation.
5. In you have I hoped all the day long: because of your goodness, O Lord.
6. Call to mind your compassion and your loving-kindness: for they are from of old.

7. Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: but according to your mercy think on me.
8. Good and upright is the Lord: therefore will he direct sinners in the way.
9. The meek he will guide in the path of justice: and teach the humble his ways.
10. All the paths of the Lord are faithful and true: for those who keep his covenant and his commandments.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 3.9-13

<sup>9</sup> How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy that we feel before our God because of you? <sup>10</sup> Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you face to face and restore whatever is lacking in your faith. <sup>11</sup> Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. <sup>12</sup> And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you. <sup>13</sup> And may he so strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia Alleluia

The Lord will speak peace to his people to those who turn to him in their hearts.
Alleluia, alleluia

Thing 2. Prayer is of the highest priority. The most important thing that I do each day is not putting things on Facebook, or trying to concoct homilies or, sorry to say it's not the bonhomie at the Hamilton Hamper on Thursdays at 3pm, pleasant and sparkly as all that is. The most important thing I do is this wrestly, wriggly elusive prayer thing. Everything else, in theory at least, flows out of that and from that. I know that this is one of the many things that Luke will patiently teach us again. I wonder what else we will learn as we meet Luke again.

Next week's homily. Road works.

Please etch these occasions into your burgeoning diaries.

Wow and Thankyou for the Created works of Art Exhibition

Last weekend saw a congenial gathering at Earlene Gellerts home. There were spectacular quilts and home made arts and crafts. There was delicious home made produce to purchase and the Lions did us proud for lunch. The sense of community and joy was palpable. Thank you to all those who worked so hard to make this such a wonderful event!

The latest edition of the giving envelopes are available for collection at the back of Christ Church Hamilton on the pew near the font. Can you help deliver some?

From the Registra in the Dnews

The Covid regulations have also removed the prohibition on shared food, drink and crockery which will make it easier to offer hospitality after services and at church occasions.

We do however need to be conscious that our State and our Communities are not yet Covid Free. Our Churches should still consider how food and drink can be provided in a risk aware way, for example servers wearing masks or use ways that minimise contact points with crockery and food.

From Fr David

In light of Hamilton's tricky week some of you may not feel comfy coming back for a cuppa after mass this morning. No-one will be grumpy, in fact they will be understanding, if you decide not to imbibe for another week.

On Tuesday 23rd of November,

Larry the cool cucumber grinned mischievously to himself as he tore open the white parcel from the post office.

"At last!" he yelped. "The new Chronicle is here. It's got something about a toilet seat and something about bishops and a bronze snake and ..."

Today's Homily

“Meet my buddy Luke”.

You're probably aware that the gospel reading on a Sunday works on a three year cycle. So in 2020 we read Matthew. This year we have been reading Mark. We get huge chunks of John during Lent and easter. In fact, the gospel for Good Friday is John's crucifixion story. Today we begin a new Church year and it's Luke's turn to shine. Here is a bit of background that I hope will be helpful for us. First up, Luke wrote one work which included his gospel and the book of Acts as we know it today. Originally they were just one single volume. When the New Testament was beginning to take shape, the two books were separated so that all the Gospels could be put together at the beginning of the list. Part 1 of Luke's work the gospel tells us the story of Jesus from his birth to his ascension; Part 2 the Acts of the Apostles, tells the story of the early church from the ascension of Jesus to the preaching of the Gospel in Rome by Paul. As with the other gospel writers, we actually don't know a lot about who Luke the person. We do know that he came pretty much top of his class when he was doing Greek. His greek is some of the best in the New Testament so we think that he was a well educated person, a gentile convert to Christianity. Luke is very passionate about certain themes and you will easily spot them in the coming year.

Theme one is universal salvation. Jesus came to save all people. The Gentiles and the Jews can be part of the Church of Jesus.

Theme two Jesus has great mercy and forgiveness. This is particularly focussed on Jesus' concern for the poor. Only Luke will have the story of the raising of the widow's son from the dead at Nain. Only Luke has the marvellous story of that recalcitrant, prodigal son who squanders his inheritance on unspeakable things and then comes bedraggled home to ask for forgiveness.

Theme 3, Luke is in touch with his feminine side. Women were often seen as second class citizens and this was the society in which Jesus lived. But Luke, bless him, goes to great lengths to include women in the Jesus story. For example the women Jesus meets on the road to Calvary, the woman who bathed Jesus' feet with her tears and the story of Martha and Mary.

Also unique to Luke is the entire saga of Junior Jesus. So the story of John the Baptist's birth, the archangel Gabrielle crashing Mary's sewing session, the delightful story of Cousin Elizabeth and the Virgin Mary rushing to meet in each other, the children leaping around in the womb, and the two mothers to be swapping stories. The presentation of the infant Christ child in the Temple. Only Luke has the story of the naughty lad Jesus staying behind in the temple and teaching the scribes a thing or two while his bewildered parents go searching everywhere for Him. All these are recorded in Luke's gospel but are startlingly, puzzlingly absent in the other gospels. It begs the question... how come Luke has this stuff and the others don't? Or... where did Luke get this material from?

Prayer is also an important theme for Luke. Luke associates prayer with the most important moments of Jesus' life. Jesus prays at his baptism (3.21), and after a day of working miracles. Before choosing the Twelve Jesus spends the night on the mount in prayer (6.12). Before Peter's confession of faith and his first prediction of the Passion, Jesus prays alone (9.18); Jesus goes to the Mount-of-the Transfiguration to pray (9.29). He prays with gladness and thanksgiving after the mission of the seventy disciples because of his Father's revelation to the little ones (10.17-21). His example leads the disciples to ask him to teach them to pray. Jesus prays during his agony on the Mount of Olives (22.39-46) and during his Crucifixion (23.34-46). So Luke has much for us to learn and relearn.

Two things from my muddy murky reflection. Thing 1. The infancy narratives teach us that Jesus was once a vulnerable child; a child who did surprising and boggling things. He had a life before he began his public ministry and when we encounter him in others in a challenging way, we should not forget that this person before us has come along a road that sometimes has been rocky and uncomfortable and is always hidden from us. All of us here were once dandled on our parents' knees and all of us infuriated and delighted our parents.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 21.25-38

The Lord be with you.

And also with you

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
According to St Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

<sup>25</sup> 'There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. <sup>26</sup> People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup> Then they will see "the Son of Man coming in a cloud" with power and great glory. <sup>28</sup> Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.' <sup>29</sup> Then he told them a parable: 'Look at the fig tree and all the trees; <sup>30</sup> as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. <sup>31</sup> So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup> Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. <sup>33</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. <sup>34</sup> 'Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day does not catch you unexpectedly, <sup>35</sup> like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. <sup>36</sup> Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.' <sup>37</sup> Every day he was teaching in the temple, and at night he would go out and spend the night on the Mount of Olives, as it was called. <sup>38</sup> And all the people would get up early in the morning to listen to him in the temple.

For the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Intercessions for the Eucharist and for you to say at home

The response to the bidding :
"Prepare our hearts Lord... is ...
"And come in your glory"

Prepare our hearts Lord...
And come in your glory

No eye has ever seen greater wonders than what God has done for us. With confidence then let us offer our prayers to God, our Father.

That our Church may reflect our joyful expectation of Christ's coming among us. We pray for Garry our Bishop and for the parish of Warrnambool; for Fr. Scott, Reverend Robyn and God's holy people there.

Prepare our hearts Lord...
And come in your glory

For the holy land at this time. For those who make pilgrimage there and for the gift of safe travel.

Prepare our hearts Lord...
And come in your glory

That this Advent season may be a time of renewal and recreation of human hearts. That we may find time to pause and remember the real reason for this time of preparation.

Prepare our hearts Lord...
And come in your glory

For those who have asked our prayers and spend this day in physical, emotional or mental pain. For those who treat them and those who are anxious for them. For God's blessing upon our community responding to COVID at this time.

Prepare our hearts Lord...
And come in your glory

For the gift of safe travel on our roads and those who will be called out to serve them. For those who we love and are separated from by distance at this time.

Prepare our hearts Lord...
And come in your glory

That Christ will bring into his Father's presence the souls of our deceased relatives and friends, especially the recently departed .....
For those who have died at the hands of others and as a result of fire.

Prepare our hearts Lord...
And come in your glory

Jesus, Master, shape us in your ways of justice and mercy, form us in your peace and craft us in your love. We ask these things in the name of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.
