Sentence: Zephaniah 3.16-17

Do not fear. The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love.

Collect: .

Almighty God, you sent your Son into a world where the wheat must be winnowed from the chaff and evil clings even to what is good: let the fire of your Spirit purge us of all corruption, so that, purified, we may wait eagerly for him whose coming is certain, whose Day draws near, your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

1st Reading: Zephaniah 3.14-20

14. Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem!
15. The Lord has taken away the judgments against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more.
16. On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak.
17. The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing
18. as on a day of festival. I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it.
19. I will deal with all your oppressors at that time. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.
20. At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the Lord.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

A Song of Isaiah

‘Behold, God is my salvation:
I will trust and will not be afraid;

‘For the Lord God is my strength and my song: and has become my salvation.’

With joy you will draw water: from the wells of salvation.

On that day you will say:
‘Give thanks to the Lord, call upon his name;

‘Make known his deeds among the nations: proclaim that his name is exalted.

‘Sing God’s praises, who has triumphed gloriously: let this be known in all the world.

‘Shout and sing for joy, you that dwell in Zion: for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.’

Second Reading: Philippians 4.4-7

⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. ⁵ Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near ⁶ Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

to listen to John the Baptist and heed his call to act appropriately.
But Megan’s story is a salutary lesson for us. That God is bigger and wiser and more comprehensive and universal than we can ever know and that is a very good thing.
To harbour revenge, to execute retaliation, to give way to and be consumed by the fire of anger in our thoughts, words, and deeds can only extinguish light, hope and love. This leaves the world and especially our own soul in a very dark and foreboding place.
But to withhold judgment gives the best possible opportunity of hope and light and love to flourish. It’s a tough gig and something we need to be reminded of continuously. Perhaps when we are struggling to withhold judgment we might remember John the Baptist and his little tantrum of repentance and new life. Or if we can’t bring him to mind, maybe Megan or perhaps just “Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us” might do the trick.

Today's Homily

If Fr. David had been here, he would have preached this homily ..

So who is Megan Phelps - Roper?

John the Baptist must have been a mean looking hombre and fierce orator. This morning he's woken up grumpy and he's just in the mood to tick everyone off.

'You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?' ⁸ Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, "We have Abraham as our ancestor"; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. ⁹ Even now the axe is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

The people quiver and shake with fear.

"OK, so what do we have to do?" they reply. And John the Baptist gives them a step by step, easy to understand, any idiot can do it guide, on how to go forward.

'Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.'

You tax collectors in your lovely swish suits from the top end of town 'Collect no more than the amount that is due.'

And you soldiers huddled over there in the corner

"Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages." No such thing as CPI in those days. And from what we can gather the folk take all this on board. They adjust their lives accordingly. They are baptised and begin a new life. One of Luke's pet subjects. Repentance, forgiveness and new hope.

It seems that judgement is withheld and thus there is hope. And it's this nuance that I want to speak about today.

To be fair the idea came from a podcast I was listening to. But if you remember only one thing from this homily remember this "To withhold judgment is the beginning of hope.."

The podcast was about Megan Phelps - Roper who grew up in an insular worshipping community. They had a very blinkered view of their own self righteousness. They were right and everyone else was wrong and they could quote chapter and verse from the bible to prove it. Further they genuinely believed that the reason people died in 9/11 and the ensuing Afghanistan war was because some gentlemen lived a particular lifestyle. What's more our Jewish brothers and sisters were going straight to the fiery depths of hell. No questions asked, even the little children. This was God's punishment on the planet and his retribution was fierce and warranted. As an infant of five years old Megan was waving placards and protesting in the streets. God hates Jews etc.

But then social media happened and Megan used this thing called twitter to put out this unfortunate point of view. Of course other people engaged with Megan, disagreed and eventually she got to meet some of these people.

One day a peculiar yet lovely thing happened. A rabbi sidled up to her in the street and just began gently chatting about everything except what was printed on her placard. Judgment on both sides was suspended and hope had an opportunity to take a breath and live.

And I reflect ... would I have been as gracious and as wise and sensitive as the rabbi? Probably not. I think I would have been hurt and very crotchety.

In the conversation not only had the Rabbi withheld his judgement but also Megan was able to withhold her judgment.

In the end, because of this dialogue and other people engaging with her point of view in a non judgmental way, Megan actually left the worshipping community.

And then something even more powerful happened. She went to the Holy land where she was embraced, welcomed, sheltered and fed by the very people she had denigrated. The experience was humbling, full of hope and life giving for everyone.

I don't know about you, but getting my own stuff together and trying to become the sort of person God wants me to be is a full on, full time, rich and challenging experience. I simply don't have the time and the energy to worry about whether God is smiting this person, or that group, or that community. It is enough

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia Alleluia

The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed

Alleluia

The Holy Gospel: Luke 3.7-18

The Lord be with you.

And also with you

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
According to St Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

⁷ John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, 'You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?' ⁸ Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, "We have Abraham as our ancestor"; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. ⁹ Even now the axe is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.' ¹⁰ And the crowds asked him, 'What then should we do?' ¹¹ In reply he said to them, 'Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.' ¹² Even tax-collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, 'Teacher, what should we do?' ¹³ He said to them, 'Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you.' ¹⁴ Soldiers also asked him, 'And we, what should we do?' He said to them, 'Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.' ¹⁵ As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, ¹⁶ John answered all of them by saying, 'I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.' ¹⁷ His winnowing-fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff

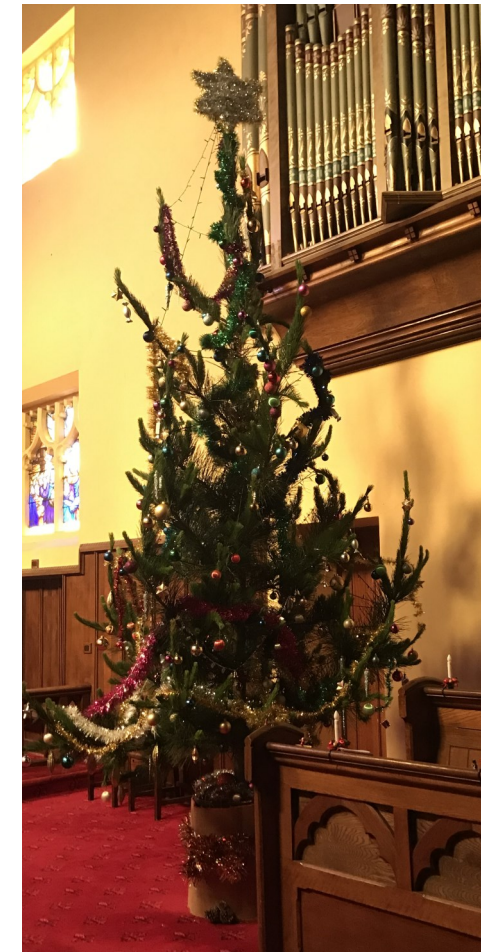

he will burn with unquenchable fire.' ¹⁸ So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

Intercessions for the Eucharist and for you to say at home

The Response to the bidding:
"Help us to live" is ...
"in the light of your coming"

Help us to live
in the light of your coming

For our church, that she may be an agent of reconciliation, encouragement and joy to those whom she serves. For Garry our Bishop and for the parish of Warracknabeal. For Fr. James as he prepares God's people for the coming of the Christ child.

Help us to live in the light of your coming

For our Advent celebration, that it will be a time of reflection on the coming of Christ; that it would be filled with prayer, repentance, and love for God and neighbour.

Help us to live in the light of your coming

For God's blessing on those who bear witness to Christ our light in the dark places of oppression and violence. That St. John the Baptist, Our Lady and St. Joseph may come to their aid and support them with their prayers and encouragement.

Help us to live in the light of your coming

For all who are called to the vocation of married life. That they may be given courage in their difficulties and joy in their lives.

Help us to live in the light of your coming

For those who have asked our prayers and those who have no-one to pray for them. In a moment of silence let us offer to the Lord those who went to hospital with COVID this week. (Pause 1,...2,...3,...)

Help us to live in the light of your coming

For all who live with fear, those who suffer and those who mourn; that in our compassion and help, they may experience the healing presence of God.

Help us to live in the light of your coming

For our beloved dead, especially the recently departed Lyall Cowell that they may be reborn in the light of the Risen Saviour and come to the joy that does not end

Help us to live in the light of your coming

Gracious God, transform our lives and our world from barrenness to harvest, from division to completeness, from death to life. We ask this in the name of Jesus our Saviour and Redeemer
