FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

21st December 2025

Sentence: Matthew 1.23

A virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and his name shall be called Emmanuel: God with us.

Collect

Gracious God, you chose the virgin Mary, by your grace, to be the mother of our Lord and Saviour: so fill us with your grace, that with her we may rejoice in your salvation, and in all things embrace your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

1st Reading: Isaiah 7.10-16

<sup>10</sup> Again the Lord spoke to Ahaz, saying,<sup>11</sup> Ask a sign of the Lord your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven.<sup>12</sup> But Ahaz said, I will not ask, and I will not put the Lord to the test.<sup>13</sup> Then Isaiah said: ‘Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary mortals, that you weary my God also?<sup>14</sup> Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Look, the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel.<sup>15</sup> He shall eat curds and honey by the time he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good.<sup>16</sup> For before the child knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land before whose two kings you are in dread will be deserted.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Psalm 80.1-7, 80.17-19

1. Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, you that led Joseph like a flock: you that are enthroned upon the cherubim, shine out in glory;
2. Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh: stir up your power, and come to save us.
3. Restore us again, O Lord of hosts: show us the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
4. O Lord God of hosts: how long will you be angry at your people's prayer?

5. You have fed them with the bread of tears: and given them tears to drink in good measure.
6. You have made us the victim of our neighbours: and our enemies laugh us to scorn.
7. Restore us again, O Lord of hosts: show us the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
17. Let your power rest on the man at your right hand: on that son of man whom you made so strong for yourself.
18. And so we shall not turn back from you: give us life, and we will call upon your name.
19. Restore us again, O Lord of hosts: show us the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

2nd Reading: Romans 1.1-7

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,<sup>2</sup> which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy scriptures,<sup>3</sup> the gospel concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh<sup>4</sup> and was declared to be Son of God with power according to the spirit of holiness by resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,<sup>5</sup> through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles for the sake of his name,<sup>6</sup> including yourselves who are called to belong to Jesus Christ,<sup>7</sup> To all God's beloved in Rome, who are called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ..

For the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 1.18-25

The Lord be with you.

And also with you

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
According to St Matthew

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

<sup>18</sup> Now the birth of Jesus the Messiah took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit.<sup>19</sup> Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace, planned to dismiss her quietly.<sup>20</sup> But just when he had resolved to do this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, ‘Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.<sup>21</sup> She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.’<sup>22</sup> All this took place to fulfil what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet:<sup>23</sup> ‘Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel’, which means, ‘God is with us.’<sup>24</sup> When Joseph awoke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him; he took her as his wife,<sup>25</sup> but had no marital relations with her until she had borne a son; and he named him Jesus

Intercessions for the Eucharist and for you to say at home

The Response to the bidding:
“Come Lord Jesus,” ... is ...”That we may live with you.”

Come Lord Jesus, ... That we may live with you.

For our Church and our parish community that we may joyfully respond to the will of God with the faith and trust of Mary and Joseph. For Garry and Scott our Bishops and the parish of St. Matthews Wendouree, Fr. Denis and God’s people there
Come Lord Jesus, ... That we may live with you.

For all mothers and children in the womb. For those who will give birth at this time and those who will tend them
Come Lord Jesus, ... That we may live with you

For the city of Bethlehem and those who will make pilgrimage to that city at this Christmass time. For the gift of safe travel on our roads and for the gift of peace
Come Lord Jesus, ... That we may live with you

For all parents and guardians, that they may see in Our Lady a model of loving patience and selfless devotion
Come Lord Jesus, ... That we may live with you

For those who do not celebrate Christs birth, that they too may know the joy and peace of the Messiah's coming. For ourselves as we prepare for Christ's coming among us. (Pause 1,...2,...3,...)

Come Lord Jesus, ... That we may live with you

For those who we love and who are separated from us by distance this time. For those families where there is disharmony.

Come Lord Jesus, ... That we may live with you

For our deceased relatives and friends, especially the recently departed of Bondi Beach that they may dwell forever in the house of God.

Come Lord Jesus, ... That we may live with you

Come Lord God, shatter the darkness of our world with the light of your love. May these prayers we offer, bring the light and peace of the Messiah into our own time and place. We ask this in the name of our hope, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

For Your Prayers This Week

Who's in the pub

Elah the drunk (1 Kings 16:8-10)
I sit quietly in my usual spot at the darkened corner of the inn. I'm comfortable here and the locals know me simply as Elah although they also call me the village idiot and the town drunk. I would be first to own up and say that I am all three. You'd have to be an idiot to be a drunk.

But I have seen too much and the wine seems to be the only thing that numbs the pain... until the next morning.

But it wasn't always this way. I vividly remember the verve with which I went to war against the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Gergashites, and the Jebusites." My job was to loot all the corpses. That was it. How hard can it be and what could possibly go wrong. It's not as though they can jump up and cut your head off.

Most of them were mutilated and decapitated with their eyes still open, gazing accusingly up at you and the their mouths twisted in the agony of their death. Take the swords, the purses and the shields. It's easy... or is it? For you just can't forget those sorts of things. I still see every one of them when I close my eyes at night.

Eventually my tour of duty ended and when I returned from the battlefield, sleep became elusive, my dreams became more vivid, the fuse on my temper became shorter, my anger became more intense. After all the thrashing nightmares, Elkanah my wife left me to become a temple prostitute. So for medication and company I find myself here at the inn. There was, after all, no one left at home and it became easier to eat bar meals than to go to the market, buy the produce and try to toss something together by myself, for myself.

My indifference and sloth spiralled downward into a maudlin self pity. I am complacent about the injustices I hear at the bar. My heart is hardened to my fellow compatriots, who like me have traded one kind of savagery for another. The death they inflict is no longer towards the enemy army but rather a slow torturous death upon themselves and those who are closest to them. The wives, the friends, the children, the brothers and sisters. There are no winners except of course the Romans who tax the wine I drink and the publican who makes a killing from my misery.

Every so often I sense that this is not all there is. There are other people leading happier lives, different lives and just for once I would like not be labelled as old Elah, the town drunk and the village idiot or is it the town idiot and village drunk. I am more than that ... surely... aren't I? It is not who I am.

What would it take to break free from the wine and the solitude. How do you do that? Who could help me and what would they be like?

I need to be surprised, disquieted, shocked and shaken. While my wine goblet is never dry I have never been more empty. Whilst my belly is stuffed full and gorged with lamb, olives and bread I am famished for a fresh new beginning.

And not just me but everyone who drinks with me, whinges with me, ignores me and belittles me. Our world is tired and it is time for something quite radical, quite different, something quite surprising. I know this is what is needed but I cannot do it by myself. I am allowing this to ruminate in my sozzled mind when all of sudden there is a loud, urgent knock on the door and there stands a rough hewn, grubby carpenter with a teenage girl in labour. "Jesus Master carpenter, when you knock upon the woodenness of our indifference and sloth, give us the will to open the door and greet your arrival with joy. Grant us the strength to open our souls, our lives and our hearts to you. Step across the threshold of our complacency and lodge within us.

Weep, dance and laugh with us. Make us uncomfortable, surprise us, disturb us, disquiet us and challenge us.

Replenish us when our cup has run dry and when we are famished nourish us with the bread of life. And finally, when our earthly temple collapses in death, bring us to the home you have prepared for us where your eternal banquet goes on forever and ever Amen.”

Thought of the week from Mothers' Union

Sunday 21st December 2025

He came to save

‘She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins’ (Matthew 1:21) In the Old Testament language of Hebrew, ‘Jesus’ was ‘Joshua’, a word meaning ‘Saviour’ and reminiscent, of course, of the great leader called Joshua and described in the book that bears his name. Thus, Jesus is the Lord who is the Saviour. But his task was even more important than that of leading the people into the Promised Land. It was ‘to save his people from their sins’. We deserve nothing but condemnation and judgement on our sins. But in his mercy and grace, though Jesus and his death on the cross, the Lord brought about the forgiveness of our sins and eternal safety. We can never cease to be grateful for what he has done for us.

Question for thought:

Is Jesus my Lord and my Saviour?

Almighty God, we pray for the Anglican Church worldwide and particularly the Archbishops, Bishops and Clergy that they will uphold your Word and lead with faithfulness, justice and mercy. We particularly pray for those nations where there is conflict and persecution of believers that you will give them courage and steadfastness. Amen
